US Presidents (Allegedly) in the Illuminati

Updated September 23, 2021 • 220.2K views • 26 items

Which presidents are in the Illuminati? The office of the President of the United States has long been suspected of being influenced by the Illuminati. The shadowy, mysterious, yet seemingly all-powerful group has been linked to virtually every American president, from George Washington to Barack Obama - and to almost every decision they've made while in office.

NEXT LIST

Young George Washington was initiated as a Master Mason, the highest beginning rank in the organization, then sworn in as a Worshipful Master of Alexandria Lodge No. 22. Additionally, the Bible Washington used when sworn in was from a Masonic lodge - and that Bible has since been used by a number of other presidents.
In a 1798 letter, Washington wrote "It is not my intention to doubt that the doctrine of the Illuminati and the principles of Jacobinism had not spread in the United States. On the contrary, no one is more satisfied of this fact than I am." Was this Washington throwing future historians off the trail of his Illuminati influence?

While not a Freemason, Jefferson was a supporter of Masonic ideals. He wrote a letter in January 1800 that extolled the virtues of Illuminati founder Joseph Wishaupt, saying he "believes that to promote this perfection of the human character was the object of Jesus Christ. That his intention was simply to reinstate natural religion, & by diffusing the light of his morality, to teach us to govern ourselves. His precepts are the love of god & love of our neighbor."

A prominent member of a high-level Illuminati family, FDR is thought to have played a critical role in the staging and propaganda of World War II, which brought tremendous wealth and power to the Cabal. Adams proposed a design for the Great Seal of the United States that was full of Illuminati images. The design Adams developed contained "The Hero resting on his Clubb. Virtue pointing to her rugged Mountain, on one Hand, and perswading [sic] him to ascend. Sloth, glancing at her flowery Paths of Pleasure, wantonly reclining on the Ground, displaying the Charms both of her Eloquence and Person, to seduce him into Vice."

Shortly before becoming president due to McKinley's assassination, Roosevelt joined the local Masonic Lodge in his hometown of Oyster Bay, NY. He stayed an active member during and after his presidency. In 1906, Roosevelt is quoted with saying something that many people believe is an acknowledgement of the Illuminati: "Behind the ostensible government sits enthroned an invisible government owing no allegiance and acknowledging no responsibility to the people. To destroy this invisible government, to befoul the unholy alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics is the first task of the statesmanship of the day."
